CCIW Player of the Year
DIIIN 1st Team All-American
NABC All-American

Wheaton College senior guard Aston Francis has been named the 2019 DIII News Player of the Year.

Francis led all NCAA divisions with a 33.9 points per game average and Division III with 5.42 3-point field goals made per game. He set the NCAA Division III record for points in a season (1,052) and is second all-time in three-pointers made in a season (168). His 383 career three-pointers stand as seventh-best in NCAA Division III history.

He was Player of the Year in the CCIW and was selected Player of the Week eight times during the season. Francis set the Wheaton single-game scoring record and NCAA Division III tournament record with 62 points in the NCAA sectional final.

Francis is joined on the 2019 DIIIN All-American team by Ben Boots from Wisconsin Oshkosh, Nebraska Wesleyan's Ryan Garver, Swarthmore senior Cam Wiley and Jonathan Patron from Plattsburgh.

DIIIN has selected a Player of the Year every season since 1993-94.
