CSAC Player of the Year
DIIIN 1st Team All-American
NABC All-American

Cabrini College senior forward Tyheim Monroe has been named the DIII News Player of the Year.

Monroe, who was named NABC Atlantic District Player of the Year, received his second consecutive CSAC Player of the Year accolade after a regular season that saw him average a league leading 21.8 points and 14.7 rebounds.

The senior led the nation with 427 total rebounds, 25 double-doubles, two triple-doubles and 10.086 defensive rebounds per game. He also ranked among the nation's top 12 in rebounds per game (#2), total field goals made (#4-251), total minutes (#4-1,042), total field goal attempts (#10-493) and offensive rebounds per game (#12-3.86).

Monroe is joined on the 2018 DIIIN All-American team by Andrew Sanders of Washington University, Nate Axelrod from Ohio Wesleyan, Augsburg's Collin Olmscheld and Aaron McFarland from Christopher Newport.

DIIIN has selected a Player of the Year every season since 1993-94.
