Ashland University sophomore Jodi Johnson has been named the 2018 Women's Division II Bulletin Player of the Year.

The GLVC Player of the Year, Johnson led the nation in 3-point field-goal percentage (60.2), a D-II women's hoops single-season record, and steals per game (3.9). She also shot 61.6 percent from the field and 83.9 percent from the free-throw line while averaging 19.6 points, 5.5 rebounds and 3.9 assists per contest.

Johnson headlines the WDIIB All-Americans, where she is joined on the first team by teammate Laina Snyder, Jessica Kelliher from Lewis, Tess Bruffey of Lubbock Christian and Chelsey Shumpert from Union.

Women's Division II Bulletin has named a Player of the Year every year since the 1993-94 season.
