Thomas More University senior Madison Temple has been named the 2019 Women's DIII News Player of the Year.

Temple was named ACAA Player of the Year and was named first team All-ACAA. She led TMU in scoring (23.7 per game), rebounding (7.1 per game), assists (155) and steals (78). Temple shot 62.0 percent (230-of-371) from the field, including 44.4 percent (40-of-90) from behind the three-point arc. She also set the all-time scoring and assists record at Thomas More this season.

Temple headlines the 2019 WDIIN All-American team, where she is joined on the first team by Hannah Spaulding from St. Thomas, Abby Kelly of Bowdoin, Trine's Brandi Dawson and Austin senior Bryce Frank.

WDIIN has named a Player of the Year every season since 1994.
